EASTERN STARS INSTALLATION

Valley of the Moon Chapter Makes Mrs. H. D. Burmester Worthy Matron at Brilliant Affair Thursday

Masonic Hall was the scene of a brilliant affair Thursday evening when the local Order of Eastern Star held its public installation of officers, with Mrs. H. D. Burmester as Worthy Matron for the ensuing year. The hall was tastefully decorated in evergreens and handsome flags, the work was put on in a most creditable and praiseworthy manner, a splendid musical program had been provided and the ladies of the Lodge, particularly those taking office, were richly gowned for the occasion and made a most distingue and pleasing appearance. The incoming Worthy Matron, Erna Burmester, gracious and stately in lustrous white satin costume trimmed in rich gold lace, was surrounded by her assistant officers, all of whom wore beautiful white dresses and carried shower bouquets of carnations and asparagus fern.

The music for the ceremonial was provided by Mrs. Herman Schieck.

Installing officer, L. S. Simmons and Marshal, Miss Nettie McConoche conducted the installation ceremonies.

After the officers had all been installed, the outgoing Matron, Alma Koeboom, was presented with a hand some jewel and in a pleasing speech, acknowledged the honor confered upon her. Mr. Simmons also received a jewel. His remarks were happily apropops to the occasion and at the conclusion of the brilliant ceremonial, the new Matron and her aides were heartily congratulated.

The program of the evening was decidedly the best given at a fraternal occasion for some time past. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schieck, Miss Myrtle Minkel, Miss Welch, Miss Ethel Small of Eldridge, Miss Gertrude Johannsen, Henry Weber Jr., R. B. Busby and Monsieur Sokalay were contributers to the entertainment. Miss Emily Poppe and Mrs. W. L. Murphy were the accompanists.

Delicious refreshments served in buffet style were a feature of the evening.

HAROLD CARRIGER PRAISES ARMY LIFE

Harold E. Carriger 30 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sol Carriger, and grandson of a pioneer family of Sonoma Valley, arrived home Monday night from the New York Army Camp where he spent several months. He was Mess Sergeant and Chief Cook and thoroughly enjoyed army life and experiences.

He was first sent to Angel Island and was with an aviation section. The outfit left there for North Carolina and remained at Charlotte for two months after which young Carriger went north in a detachment of 100 motor trucks. They saw all the sights worth seeing along the way and finally arrived at Garden City, New York after a 12 days journey up the coast.

At Garden City which was an embarkation point the Sonoma soldier was installed as chief cook for the entertainment squadron consisting of theMilitary bands, jazz bands baseball teams, tumblers, singers, and other entertainers. He declares he was with the finest bunch in the world and had a wonderful time. Harold says with all due respect to our California girls that all the "chickens" do not come out of the West by any means for the Eastern girls are wonderful and he is figuring pretty strong in returning to claim "the girl he left behind." The southern girls are sweet too" says Harold, "but me for Brooklyn."

The young soldier received an honorable discharge and spoke highly of his commanding officer, Colonel Miller. On the trip home Carriger experienced cold weather and much snow although no snow had fallen in New York when he left there. He was six days and nights on the road and 25 S. F. boys came to the coast with him.

Sonoma friends and relatives give him a hearty welcome and he tells them all "me for the army any time Uncle Sam wants me."

He was formerly a painter at the State Home but does not expect to resume his old job as his present plans call for an early return to the East.

Lt. R. Larsen and Ensign Bruckerman, friends of Lt. Leland Volquardsen of the U. S. S. Mars were here from Mare Island Sunday, guests at the Volquardsen home.

BUSY MEETING OF CITY DADS

Sewer and Streets Occupy Attention Of Board at February Meeting.

The February meeting of the City Trustees was a busy one with special stress on sewer and street improvements. Sidewalks were ordered repaired, a grade is to be provided for curb and concrete walk for Sam Sebastiani, street construction was discussed at length and preliminaries taken to provide a sewer for the cannery section.

The mayor of Los Angeles asked for the endorsement by all municipalities of a legislative bill providing that half of the auto license money collected in cities be turned over for municipal street improvements instead of to state or county.

Mr. Pierce of the California Telephone, Light and Power company stated that the company would make a special rate for power used to operate the municipal rock crusher. The rate heretofore has been prohibitive according to Irving Brusky, leasee of the plant, and as a result, the crusher has not been operated. Under the new arrangement, a minimum of $30 per month is to be charged with a charge of $1.00 for connecting and disconnecting, which is believed will be satisfactory. The city dads therefore plan through the Street committee, Messrs Beretta and Bulotti, to put on crushed rock on Sonoma's streets and arrangements are to be made with the county or the Howard Construction Co. for a roller to use on the streets. Considerable creek gravel has been put on this season on account of the high price of power and labor to operate the crusher, but the gravel has called forth some protest from property owners.

A petition signed by tax payers praying for the calling of an election for a bond issue to construct a sewer to connect the cannery and that section was placed on file and after the signatures are verified, the trustees will proceed with the preliminary steps and determine the best course to take in connecting up with the main sewer.

The following bills were allowed and ordered paid by warrants on the treasury:

Geo. Chieazola, labor	$ 27.00
H. W. Gottenberg, salary etc.	16.60
Mosso & Bianchini, gravel,	355.00
F. Canevari, janitor,	7.50
A. W. Adler, lumber,	8.64
Calif. T. & L. Co., lights,	48.00
F. Duhring, supplies,	18.80
Son. Val. W.L.& P. Co. water,	12.00
" " "	24.00
Son. City W.W. Co., water,	25.00
F. M. Norrbom, plastering,	3.00
S. Schocken, water,	9.00
H. Castagnasso, labor,	3.00
R. Quartaroli, labor,	90.00
J. H. Albertson, salary,	15.00

Your electric iron will be repaired at the Sonoma Machine Works, rear of Adler's mill.

ARTHUR DRAKE HOME AGAIN

Anti Aircraft Man Returns From 12 Months Service With Army in France.

Arthur Drake has returned to Sonoma after 12 months service with the army over seas. He looks well and thoroughly enjoyed the experience abroad where he served with the anti aircraft units. In fact his division of aircraft defense were the first Americans in that branch of the service in France. They operated revolving 3 inch guns from below the surface and protected other divisions of the troops from enemy air fire. The guns fired time shells as far as 4 miles and could be operated at an angle of 89 degrees. The guns used by the Americans for this purpose were of French make and very accurate. The Yanks thought they could improve on the base and tried out some, thinking to better the efficiency of the fire, but is was demonstrated that the French had it down to a science. Drake and his outfit put to flight many Bosch planes. His unit was in the Marne district. He witnessed terrible desolation in districts which the Germans devastated.

The Germans he says were sure quitters and those of the Prussian guards who tried to bluff bravery were soon subdued when they saw they were up against real American fighters. Mr. Drake says that the impression of our country among many people abroad is that there is just a little strip of the U. S. A. along the Atlantic really populated and that beyond the Mississippi river, we are all Indians or half civilized. He says real American Indians were the center of much interest over there, one fine typical Indian soldier posing for a noted sculptor in Paris while on duty near that city.

Drake's experience was not without hardship. He went through some terrible cold weather last winter and was 3 days and nights traveling in box cars without even straw on the floor and on cold rations at that. He had some experience with the famous delousing stations but was fortunate enough to side step "cooties" altogether.

At Camp Williams, a U. S. supply base, he met Newt. Dal Pogetto, who was in charge of the quartermasters department there and had a fine job from the time he left Jacksonville Florida. Drake also met Arthur Fisk when the young railroad man first arrived over there.

Although some of the big French cities impressed him with their great beauty, he says old U. S. A. and particularly the West looks pretty good to him when it comes to a permanent place of abode.

The trip home was made on a converted U. S. cruiser and the Sonoman says it was "some" rough. He was glad to finnally arrive at Camy Kearney and is still more pleased to be once again among his old Sonoma friends.

As yet he has made no plans in regard to re-entering civilian commercial life. He was formerly Sonoma manager of the Calif. Telephone and Light Company.

SEBASTIANI LEAVES ON A TRIP TO NEW YORK

Sam Sebastiani, cannery owner and wine man leaves today on his annual business trip to New York. The visit of the progressive Sonoma capitalist to the East this year is fraught with much importance to Sonoma valley for Mr. Sebastiani is to confer with big buyers in the Eastern market and if plans mature will return with contracts for Sonoma valley produce from the Sebastiani plants which will exceed in volume all previous business handeled by him. It means that the cannery will probably more than triple its output in 1919, with consequent employment of many more hands and a payroll that will exceed that of last season by many thousands of dollars. The payroll this year averaged over $2,000 a week.

The coming of Mr. Sebastiani to New York from "the valley of the moon" California's famous section, each year is looked forward to with much interest by big business people there and this year with prohibition's blight about to descend upon the nation, his plans for the future and point of view will be of intense interest.

The confiscation of a business of the magnitude of Mr. Sebastiani's wine and brandy business without due process of law is a sample of the kind of injustice which will be dealt out to hundreds of sufferers from the injustice of prohibition and is not to be accomplished without a hard fight in the courts which the grape growers have already launched.

Mr. Sebastiani will confer with leading wine and grape buyers of the East in addition to renewing his business relations with customers of his $50,000 cannery plant.

The regular meeting of the Congregational Ladies Aid Society will be held in the church parlors on next Tuesday, Feb. 11th. The society will be entertained by Mrs. I. Cookman and Mrs. W. W. Carter.

Local Transportation Problems

WHILE SONOMA VALLEY was already in the throes of despair over its transportation problems, along came the war and knocked out all hope during 1918 of getting any better service, either railway or highway. Not only were we deprived of hope, but what we already conceded to be but mediocre service was so badly cut down and impaired by the war rulings that we suffered inconvenience and material loss for we paid more and got less than we ever had heretofore. Rates both freight and passenger, took an alarming jump while time tables and daylight saving played havoc with us all. The much boosted government ownership plan failed to make much of an impression, although of course we all considered that war times are der the administration of anti-corporation methods, not normal times, and made allowances for the railroads shortcomings un-

The other means of outlet, particularly our state highway connection which cost a lot of money to get to the rut, dust, and mud stage, and has never emerged yet to an honest to goodness road, left us hopelessly out of luck for either a direct or satisfactory means of communication with the metropolis or state capitol. For either pleasure or business purpose, the Black Point cut-off route has thus far been a dismal failure. Now that war restrictions are off, we are given some assurance that we are to be given a decent road and put back on the map and it is high time for it is doing the people of three counties a huge injustice to hang up the completion of this road work for which they put up so much money, a moment longer. It will be a long time before this section can live down its reputation for impossible roads, after the way motorists plunged through the rough going, over detours, coming this way last summer. Too much praise cannot be given the Richmond-San Rafael ferry service for keeping their lines of communication with the East of bay section going through it all and despite conditions and obstacles of every character. The same may be said of the auto bus service between Santa Rosa, Sonoma and Napa for the rough and almost impassible road connection has made it no easy matter

The outlook in 1919 for Sonoma valley railroad service is not starting out very promising, but let us not take a pessimistic view of it yet for readjustment is still to be expected. Let us hope that the public will be considered and that all the improvement will not be class legislation, in the interest of employees. Instead of figuring on the 8 hours, which is such a boon to trainmen, let some one get in and figure out a better time schedule for Sonoma valley, particularly on Sundays and may we soon again have cheaper fares. Put our matchless climate and pretty environment again within the reach of all vacationers. As to freight rates and freight service that is a vital problem for with opportunity for our fruits and produce in Eastern markets, the transportation arrangements must be satisfactory or else the call for farmers to farm, and growers to raise fruit is a fiasco. If we are going to speed up production, we must have transportation service.

If a community is to forge ahead and grow, its transportation facilities must grow with it. Government ownership of railroads and state building of highways, with their political red tape, seem to impede progress and offer a poor way out of our present troubles.

Sonoma County means business on the Road Engineer plan to better local arteries and we have also a strong delegation pointing out to Sacramento solons the importance of the cross county highway through this scenic and fruitful section to the coast. If "agitation makes the butter" Sonoma county is surely going to have something to show for its progressive and up-to-date efforts during 1919. We have been in a rut (literally and figuratively speaking) long enough.

Americans Sober In France

THE NATIONAL association of tenderfeet and timidities are having spasms over the statement of Gertrude Atherton that eleven thousand American soldiers have taken French wives, and she "wished to God it were a hundred thousand." Says the Pacific Coast Manufacturer. "The T&T society who want everybody to be compelled to be a total abstainer from everything, just as though there was any such thing as total abstinence from anything, are also deploring that the penetration of the American army into Germany is going to bankrupt the morals of the American nation. The German Lorelei in the form of the beer garden waitress will do the deadly work that the British barmaid left unfinished. To read General Pershing's report of the morals and the morale and courage of the American Army in France, the demoralization of our soldiers has not proceeded very far. The gang of released reformers who rushed over there on better salaries than their impoverished congregations could pay them at home were compelled to report that the condition of our troops in respect to morals and sobriety was on a higher standard than at Camp Funston, Kansas, where the puritanical purists and reformers closed even the picture shows on Sunday. Well, the two and a half million soldiers and sailors who are coming home can express their own opinions on things in general after they come home. National blue laws will have to be hurried or some of them will never get past the soldier vote. —The Manufacturer.

THE GOOSE-STEP FOR THE PIE.

Dedicated to the 1919 State Legislature.

They goose-step for the Gandier (and the politicians' pie),
These wise men of the State House we elected, you and I.
They don't care for pure water as a stimulating drink,
But they vote on prohibition as the drys would have them think.
So they line up when so ordered and they vote the country dry,
And they goose-step for the Gandier (and the politicians' pie).
They must hurry, these good keepers of their brothers' moral trend;
They must finish up their work before their fleeting powers end,
For they hunger for the pie crusts, these good Solons from the South,
And the big funds of the prohi's make them water at the mouth.
So they climb upon the wagon, and in private heave a sigh,
While they goose-step for the Gandier (and the politicians' pie).
When the soldier boys are home again from Belgium and from France,
Where they bore their part in battle; where they made the Prussians dance,
Then these modern, model Puritans will occupy a pew
In the back row of the has-beens; be remembered by but few.
So they lose no time, these wise men we elected, you and I.
As they goose-step for the Gandier (and the politicians' pie).

HEARTS OF THE WORLD IS COMING TO PETALUMA

The struggle of the defenders of world democracy against German Kultur is pictured with the force of a great epic in D. W. Griffith's tremendous love story of the present war, "Hearts of the World," which opens its engagement at the Hill Opera House, Petaluma, for 3 days commencing Tuesday, Feb. 11th.

The big film is the finest example of Griffith's art and is a drama of life and love, hope and fear, joy and sorrow and at the same time a tremendously stirring patriotic story. It isn't that Griffith's big play has more guns in it than any other war play; it isn't because it shows life in the trenches as it is, for these things have been shown time and time again without number; nor that is well chosen and the story intensely interesting and human. It is because every character in the play is real.

The story is really that of a village of Northern France. It opens with the dawning love between the boy and the girl. The "Little Disturber," a strolling street singer, falls in love with "The Boy", but he is too much in love with "The Girl" to seek new conquests. Light touches of humor throughout the early scenes of the play tend to heighten the happiness and peace which then prevades the village. The boy, Monsieur Cuckoo, and the village carpenter are the principal male characters of that little French village.

As "The Girl" is in the midst of her preparedness for the coming wedding to "The Boy," comes the war declaration and the order for mobilization. Though "The Boy" is an American he has been a resident of France for some years and declares that "The country that is good enough to live in is good enough to fight for" and enlists. Scenes are shown of the British House of Parlament and French Chamber of Deputies as they make preparations for war. The mobilization of the French and German armies is shown and the kaiser is seen making his famous declaration. He is roundly hissed at every performance. Weight of numbers is on the side of the Teuton hordes and the village is taken. They visit their frightfulness upon the remaining inhabitants of the town and some of the most thrilling episodes of the play transpire during their short occupation. Toward the finale of the story, the American troops, beneath the Star Spangled Banner, march by to take their place in the fight for world democracy. This scene is greeted with vociferous applause at every performance and furnishes the climax of a wonderful play that has already taken New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago and San Francisco by storm. See ad for prices etc.

LOCATED FRANK ALGREIN FOR THE RED CROSS

Frank Allgrein, who was sought here by the international Red Cross of Switzerland has been located by Mrs. C. E. Johnson of the Social Service Commission. After reading of the inquiry for him in the paper, Messrs Carter and Abel both came forward and gave Mr. Algrein's address in San Francisco.

He owned a small piece of property in this valley and belonged to the same lodge as Mr. Abel, so he was readily located.

HEROES, SURE THING!

If there was anybody from Missouri
* * * * *
Who wanted to be shown that Yanks in or out of war are heroes.
* * * * *
They got satisfied Wednesday.
* * * * *
For just that day two strapping lads in khaki
* * * * *
Were occupying prominent places on the street in the busy business district of Sonoma.
* * * * *
Surrounded by a crowd of adoring admirers.
* * * * *
One fighting man from overseas would have suffered suffocation
* * * * *
Had he not been so tall, and towered above his civilion audience
* * * * *
And the other dough-boy, who always has a girl on his arm and some on his mind
* * * * *
Is used to admiration, so he didn't mind.
* * * * *
The talk was on the Hun-run order
* * * * *
And Sonoma's heroes were a little coy
* * * * *
Fearing lest their audience might think them too ready with the hot air stuff
* * * * *
Although nary such thought ever entered the head
Of one of that typical American bunch
* * * * *
The boys could have hung it on to 'em 40 ways, as they say
* * * * *
And they'd a believed it, and been hanging on yet
* * * * *
But suddenly, up the street, in mad confusion
* * * * *
Came a runaway horse, with fear crazed eye
* * * * *
Wet with sweat and wildly seeking separation from the cart, rattling at its heels
* * * * *
The animal dashed up upon the pavement
* * * * *
Making straight for destruction, through a plate glass window
* * * * *
Some pedestrians dived into a near-by dug-out, others stood awed
* * * * *
The rattling hoofs and confusion for an instant, dazed the crowd
Which had surrounded our soldier boys
* * * * *
But presto, as the barrage lifted,
* * * * *
Here were the knights of the khaki clinging to the bit of the trembling horse, brought to a standstill
* * * * *
Stopped in its tracks, even as the Hun
* * * * *
Heroes? Well I guess yes.

GOBARS HAVE NARROW ESCAPE

Auto Collision On Napa Road Results Very Luckily For Two Motorists.

Dr. I. C. Gobar and family had a narrow escape from serious injury in an auto collision on the Napa road last Sunday. When just about to go on to the paved highway between here and Napa, Dr. Gobar at the wheel of his car, saw two machines coming over the crest of the hill just in front of him and before he could get out of the way, one of the oncoming cars, driven by a man by the name of Newman from Glenn county, crashed into the Sonomans.

Although the doctor swung wide, the cars met head on and only the white fence guarding the road at that point saved his machine from turning completely over. The physician and his family were badly shaken up but aside from the shock, were unhurt. Both cars however were badly damaged and had to be towed to Garry's garage for repairs.

The third motorist gave aid and brought Dr. and Mrs. Gobar and children to their home here.

YOUNG AMERICAN RADIO OPERATOR AT COBLENZ, GERMANY

The following is another interesting letter from Neal Dodge to his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Carter.

Coblentz, Germany,
Dec. 19th, 1918.

My dear Grandmother:

Your very sweet letter of Oct. 17 just reached me, and Oh how pleased I was to get it. I have received about ten letters in the past three days, but that was the first in five weeks. No doubt but you received my card from Luxemburg long ago. I was having such a good time in that city that a card was about as much as I wrote to anyone. My how well every one treated us there! Girls, boys, men and women would go way out of their way to speak to us or shake hands and tell us how welcome we were. They wined and dined till there was no end to it. I averaged 3½ hours sleep a day dur- our stay in that city. So you may know how much I was enjoying our first bit of civilization since we left the states. Everything was so clean and beautiful, the buildings and in fact everything was arranged so artiscally that no matter which way one looked there was a beautiful picture. Believe me, it was by far the prettiest city I had ever been in before.

The people there told me Coblenz was still prettier, but I cannot agree with them, although Coblenz is certainly a beautiful city. Me for Luxemburg and am not alone in that either for all the rest of the boys are ready any time to go back to the best little city we've seen in Europe. We had a Thanksgiving dinner with a gentleman and his wife, also two or three other dinners with them but this one in particular will never be forgotten. It wasn't anything elaborate but the best they could afford. The best of all was the spirit in which it was given. You know everything there was powerfully high especially meats, soap, shoes and clothing of any kind. He says it costs him 2,000 marks a month or about $500.00 and that is just living moderately. When you compare that with what it used to cost to live before the war 2,500 marks for one whole year, it is pretty steep.

From Luxemburg we crossed over into Germany to Betburg where we stayed for about a week. In this city the people at first appeared to be afraid of us but about the time we left they too were very friendly and every where we were meeted by a pleasant, "Good morning." From there we moved on to Mayen where we stayed only 3 or 4 days. I did not get to see much of this city though it was very odd, the streets twist and turn so mich that one really needed a guide to be able to get about the city. Many of the boys were lost for quite some time. Then to, the M. P's had only been there in the city a few days and were not well enough acquainted to be able to direct one. From there we moved to Coblenz where we spent our first night in an ex-hospital under the bridge that crosses the Rhine, but the next morning we moved up to our present location in what is known as the Telegraph Barracks. It is a small camp, entirely enclosed by a high iron fence and exclusively for Signal Corps troops. There are now three Battalions in this camp. All the buildings are 3 or 4 story brick structures and everything is well arranged.

Our radio station is situated in a large room on the second floor of what was once a Signal Store house and repair shop. We sleep in another room on the same floor. How well we are fixed now as compared to the comforts we have had heretofore, electric lights, a stove in each room gas and in one room and a real dathtub on the main floor with a wood stove for treating the water. Then to I have a spring mattress on my bed and am using an old phone booth as a clothes closet. Everything is fine now. So far I haven't seen but very little of this city in the day-time but intend to take in the sights in the next day or so. But from what I have seen of it, it certainly is a very beautiful city, but does not outshine Luxemburg.

I am glad that brother Dick enlisted and got into the service, but I presume that by the time this letter reaches you he will be back home again. I received a letter from him today written at Gettysburg, Pa. Thanks very much for sending the box of candy although I doubt very much if I will ever get it, at least so far it has not arrived, in fact I have never received anything from anyone in the U. S. A. other than letters although many of them have sent papers, magazines, candy etc., but not one has ever reached me to this date. I sure would love to have any one of those items as they are as scarce as iceburgs on the equator over here, but I presume it is a hopeless case. At any rate I have done without them this long. I guess I can do without them till I get home which ought to be pretty soon. I hope so at any rate. Give my love to everyone, with lots of love to you Grandmother dear.

Your grandson,
Neal Dodge

TILLY FREDERICKS' MOTHER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Dora Fredericks, beloved wife of Morris H. Fredericks entered her last sleep at 4:10 Sunday morning at the family home in Petaluma and that city mourns with the bereaved family in their great hour of sorrow.

Mrs. Fredericks was a woman whose whole life has been one constant endeavor to do good, and relatives, neighbors and friends alike have blessed her for her countless noble acts and good deeds. Charitable to an unusual degree, big hearted loving and kind, nothing was too much for her and she aided the sick and cared for the needy and has done more than one woman's share of good on earth.

Devoted to husband, home and family, her heart was centered on her sole surviving son, Sergt. Marty Fredericks, now in the army and she was greatly cheered by his presence here, the young soldier having recently crossed the continent to see his mother and had but just returned to camp and now is summoned home for her funeral.

Mrs. Fredericks was born on the Island of Fohr, Germany, and on March 20th would have attained her fifty eighth year.

Mrs. Fredericks was the beloved mother of Mrs. Ida Mattei of Petaluma; Mrs. Minnie Galleher of San Bruno; Miss Tilly Fredericks of Eldridge; Mrs. Dora Kopf of Petaluma, and Sergt. Marty Fredericks, Quartermaster Department, Camp, Cody, New Mexico.

VISITORS HERE FROM CANADA

W. F. Mackin, a nephew of the late Jas. Mackin, and at one time manager of the Mc Mackin ranch at Schellville was town Tuesday with his wife and son. Mr. Mackiin is now a resident of Glenside, Lask, Canada where he owns a 2400 acre grain ranch. He had not been in valley for twenty years and the boy who was born here is now a tall fine looking young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackin called on City Trustee George Breitenbach and wife while here and they talked about old times and had a very pleasant visit.

August Moebes for many years popular with cafe patrons in S. F. and who has many friends in Sonoma Valley has been suffering from a serious illness at his country home south west of town.

L. M. Bish of Madrone Vineyards is out again after a nine day siege of the "flu"

Mrs. George Bruns of El Verano has been under the care of Dr. Gobar for acute rheumatism.

Robley Harbort, little grandson of Mrs. Kate Buchan was given a dinner last Sunday in honor of his birthday. Robley is a bright boy and quite a pianist. He also has some talent for illustrating and delights in drawing pictures on navy type boats as described by his uncle, Chief Pharacist Ralph Buchan.

Miss Rose Pagani entertained a number of friends at dinner last Sunday.

MRS. GAUTIER DIES THURSDAY

A message was received Friday morning giving the news of the death of Madame E. V. Gautier, who passed away on Thursday night in S. F. at St. Mary's hospital. Mrs. Gautier had gone to S. F. to spend the winter with members of her family who reside there. She had been in feeble health for some weeks past and death came peacefully to her Thursday.

The Gautiers resided in Santa Rosa for many years and Madame Gautier made her home here 45 years, and 33 years of this time she lived in the home place on Morgan street. Madame Gautier was 74 years old. She was a relative of the late Leonidas Gautier, advocate and barrister and Dr. Pericles Gautier of S. F. and the mother of Sister Basil, Sister Bernardine of Notre Dame College of S. F., Miss Leonora Gautier of the Polytechnic High School, and Dr. Leo Gautier and Lambert Gautier.

Miss Leonora Gautier taught school here for many terms at Agua Caliente.

APPLES ARE IN BIG DEMAND

To fill Eastern and European orders, buyers are offering not less than $2 per box for all the California apples they can get, including 4½ tier stock. This is, of course, the highest price that California apples have ever brought. Another feature of the thing is that never before have the Eastern and European demands taken San Francisco warehouse stocks so early in the year.

It is a saying with the trade that when England is in the market California has a good apple year. England is in the market hand over fist this year. Other years the Eastern and European movement does not matedialize until some time in March It is in the nature of cleanup proposition, when holders are glad to get a fair price to dispose of what they have on hand.

But now things are different. Watsonville has been shipping steadily for some time and is cleaning up its warehouse stocks rapidly. S. F. started to ship on Saturday, and other lots will be going out every day this week.

This means that the supply here will be tight enough to allow prices to firm up, and some dealers look for California Newtown Pippins to go to $2.50 at least, and possibly as high as $3 per box. —Republican

George Zane of Woodland, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Johnson, is still going forward with army occupation in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shofner have returned from San Francisco and Mr. Shofner has recovered from a severe attack of influenza which kept him confined to his hotel aparments in the metropolis for some weeks.

A farewell party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins who leave this week to take up their residence in Oakland. The beautiful house in the El Verano foot hills lent itself delightfully to the party arranged by friends and neighbors and there was dancing and merry making until well after midnight. The Hawkins leave Sonoma with the best wishes of many friends.

Carl Bolin is up from Oakland with his father and sister at their El Verano home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown were in town Sunday week visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Akers and the Prof. Painter family were over from Petaluma Sunday.

SAD MEMORIES

When your back is broke and your eye is blurred,
And your shin-bones knock and your tongue is furred,
And your tonsils squeak and your hair gets dry,
And you're doggone sure you're goin' to die,
But you're scared you won't and afraid you will;
Just drag into bed and have your chill,
And pray the Lord to see you thru—
For you've got the flu, boy,
You've got the flu.
When your tongue curls up and your belt goes flat,
And you're twice as mean as a Thomas cat,
And life is a long and dismal curse,
And your food all tastes like a hard-boiled hearse;
When your lattice aches and your hear's a-buzz,
And nothing is as it ever was;
Here are my sad regrets to you—
You've got the flu, boy,
You've got the flu.
What is it like, this Spanish Flu?
Ask me, brother, for I've been thru;
It is by misery out of despair—
It pulls your teeth and it curls your hair;
It thins your blood and it frays your bones,
And fills your craw with moans and groans;
And, maybe, sometime, you'll get well
Some call it flu, but—
I call it hell.

NEW RULING ON FEDERAL LIQUOR CASES

United States Judge Erskine M. Ross today reversed the decision of the Federal Court finding Mrs. Ida Peterson guilty of selling liquor to soldiers. Mrs. Peterson was sentenced to serve eighty days in jail and to pay a fine of $500 by Federal Judge E. A. Farrington of Nevada, sitting for Judge Van Fleet.

The decision is expected to result in many appeals from similar actions in the lower courts.

In his decision reversing this sentence, Judge Ross says:

"It is a settled rule in this Circuit Court that where the officers of the law have incited a person to commit the crime charged and lured his on to its consummation, with the purpose of arresting him in its commission, the law will not authorize a verdict of guilty."

At the trial in the lower court A. P. Black, the woman's attorney, argued that two soldiers and a policeman, working for the government, had talked with Mrs. Peterson four hours before she yielded to their pleas and furnished them with beer.

According to Judge Farrington's instructions to the jury, the case did not present any question of law for the jury to determine, but only a question of facts. That is to say, did the defendant sell the beer to the soldiers? —S. F. Call.

Now is the time to have that engine overhauled at the Sonoma Machine Works.

HENRY WEBER JR. HOME AND RESUMES POSITION AT BANK

Sergeant Henry Weber Jr., has returned from Camp Kearney where he was attached to Headquarters and was in the service since last June. He has resumed his position as teller at the Sonoma Vallek Bank and all his friends are glad to know that he has decided to remain in Sonoma.

Weber speaks in high terms of the commanding officer, Major Brundred, a West Pointer. Weber's work had to do with compiling service records and he found much to interest him in the work. One surprising phase of many of the men's records were the inability of some to sign their names and lack of the most elementary education. He said many fine looking and well spoken boys had failed to avail themselves of schooling of any sort. The Y. M. C. A. provided classes and teachers for those who wanted to learn.

"Heinie" took a prominent part in the social side of life at camp and his fine voice was heard at several big affairs given for the entertainment of the soldiers. The boys were treated fine in the entertainment line, a concert by Schumann-Heink, the appearance of Mary Pickford, Dustin Farnum, Marguerite Clark and other stars of the screen being quite an event and in addition, there were minstrel shows, concerts and fine dances under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus (Kaiser Chasers) and jazz musical treats by Jack Prince the violin wizard. During the flu siege, Heinie says that most of the entertainment was out of doors and there was strict orders in regard to congregating in the canteens in order to avoid crowds and stamp out the epidemic. The Sonoma boy was lucky to escape the flu himself and came home weighing 178 pounds.

The trip from San Diego was made on the steamer and he stopped over in San Francisco to visit his friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Whitlow.

Supt. Keechler of the Jones ranch was a business visitor to San Francisco Monday. This is the first time this stock has been offered to the public, the vast majority being in the hands of the 27,000 stockholders, of which L. S. Simmons of this city is one.

LOUIS FELDER RETURNS FROM AMERICAN LAKE

Wearing a broad smile and a fine medal for expert marksmanship, Louis Felder, popular Sonoma valley boy got home from American Lake, Washington, on Tuesday after seven months service in the army. Louis who always was a husky boy, carries himself with true soldierly bearing and shows the benefit of army drilling and experience. He was met at El Verano by his folks, his chum Bloss Keechler and a few close friends and it was a joyous reunion.

Louis won honors for being an expert rifleman and it is not at all surprising, for he always was regarded as a crack shot and was sure to bring down the first deer of the season here each season.

Had it not been for an attack of ptomaine poisoning which caused him a serious illness while at camp, he would have probably gone overseas. He still shows some effects from the sick spell but says a few days riding over the range in Sonoma Valley's peerless climate will bring back his healthy sunburn and put him in fine shape. He plans to assist his father, Jos. Felder, the well known stockman on the big ranch between here and Petaluma. Welcome home Louie!
